What plant hormone is redistributed within a plant to cause the bending of plants in response to light?

A  gibberellin
B  auxin
C  cytokinin
D  ethylene
E  abscisic acid

Auxin diffuses to the cells on the shaded side of the stem, causing them to elongate and bending the stem toward the light.
Answer B.